

3 HOT CANADIANS TO KNOW

ACTOR: KATIE BOLAND Toronto's own Boland has scored a hat trick with three upcoming flicks, including Atom Egoyan's latest film, Adoration, out this month. You can also catch her stealing scenes in the comedy Growing Op as well as a drama about Cannes and celebrity obsession, The Making of Pius One, with Jennifer Tilly.

ARTIST: CÉLINE B. LA TERREUR Montreal-based artist La Terreur's elegant sepia-toned paintings, The Divine Tragedy: 2009, are the perfect tribute to one of opera's most stylish singers, Maria Callas. Check them out from May 7-June 6 at the Joyce Yahouda Gallery in Montreal.

AUTHOR: EMILY SCHULTZ Although Schultz has already penned three acclaimed books and created a go-to site for short fiction (www.joyland.ca), her latest novel, Heaven is Small, is by far the most captivating. Focusing on Gordon Small—a struggling romantic-fiction writer—Schultz's hilarious plot seems tailor-made for a Hollywood adaptation. —A.B.
